

SLD260

16 Channel Multiplexed Digital Video Recorder

security labs

Features

- High performance sixteen channel (camera) multiplexed digital video recording system with 120 GB hard drive included. Secondary HD bay for adding an additional hard drive
- Sixteen looping camera inputs, four audio inputs
- Playback resolution: 720x480 (full screen)
- Programmable built in video motion detection
- Maximum system record rate: 25 images per second
- Four video compression mode selections for maximum record duration
- PIP (picture in picture)
- 160 event motion detection log
- Call monitor output
- Wavelet video compression.
- Record trigger (16 inputs) for event recording, plus output contacts
- Record over option allows the recorder to keep recording after the hard drive is full
- Adjustable brightness, contrast, and color for each camera
- Search for events by time and date, event, motion detection or timer recording
- Programmable daily or specific timed recording
- RS232 & RS485 communications through rear port
- Automatic controlled recovery and return to original operation after a power loss
- Power consumption: 18W. Includes 12VDC power supply

